HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, THURSDAY, November 29, 1821.

The 28th drawing of the GRAND STATE LOTTERY of Maryland will take place on THURSDAY NEXT, the 6th of December. On that day, agreeably to the scheme, the first drawn Number will be entitled to the Great Capital Prize of FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS, and for which the Cash, at COHEN'S OFFICE, can be had the moment it is drawn.

Only three drawings remain to complete the scheme. The state of the wheel is now very much in favor of adventurers, it having gained 27,760 dollars.

The official list of yesterday's drawing of the Grand STATE LOTTERY will be found on the opposite page. The Thousand Dollar Prize, which came up to No. 9,858, is owned in a whole ticket by a gentleman in Sharp-street, in this city; he purchased the lucky number week before last. No other prizes drawn higher than Hundreds and Fifties; these were distributed, part in whole tickets, and part in shares, amongst our distant patrons, some of them in Hagerstown in this State, Fredericksburg in Virginia, Surry Court-House, &c. &c.—the principal part of them held in shares.

Timely Notice.—The Managers of the 5th class of the WASHINGTON MONUMENT LOTTERY, have notified the public of the intended advance of the tickets to Ten Dollars on the 13th of next month, (December.) Until that day the original rate of Nine Dollars will be continued. ORDERS for Tickets from any part of the United States will meet prompt attention, addressed to J. I. COHEN, Jr. Secretary to the Managers, Baltimore.

The capital prizes in the scheme are 30,000 dollars—20,000 dollars—10,000, &c. &c.—the whole payable in Cash. Not two Blanks to a prize.—Amongst other inducements in the scheme, we notice that the first drawn 3,000 blanks are entitled to Ten Dollars each! which affords a great advantage to the early adventurer.

Both the Blanks and Prizes are to be drawn, and the drawing to be conducted under the superintendence of the Commissioners appointed by the Governor and Council of State.

Baltimore Medical College.—The number of students now attending the lectures at this institution is 231, being an increase of upwards of One hundred since last year. The first year there were only 72 students.

Latest from England.—The fast sailing ship Triton has arrived at Boston from Liverpool, bringing London papers to the 20th of October, and Liverpool to the 23d. There had been a decline in the average price of wheat of upwards of nine shillings. Notwithstanding these accounts, no material alteration has taken place in the Baltimore grain market, as will be seen on reference to the rates on our first page.—In Liverpool, the Cotton market had been dull for some time; the sales for the week, ending the 23d October, were only 6000 bales, and at $\frac{1}{2}$ decline upon low and middling qualities of Uplands, Orleans and Tennessee. The sales include 3000 Uplands 8d. a 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ —790 Orleans 9 a 12 $\frac{1}{4}$ —103 Tennessee 8 $\frac{1}{4}$ a 9—250 S. Islands at 14 $\frac{1}{2}$ a 23.

Tobacco had been in brisk demand since the 1st. About 1100 hhds sold, chiefly Virginias, and at an advance of $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per lb. Fair parcels of leaf and strips now average about 5 $\frac{1}{2}$, and considering the short supplies of this year, and decreasing stocks, the market is likely to be fully supported. At this time last year the stocks in London and Liverpool were 23,000 and now there are not 17,000 hhds. Of Carolina Tar, sales were made at 13s. 6d. to 14s. per bbl—Turpentine 10 a 13s. 6d. per cwt—fine 14 a 20s.

The British sovereign entered his German capital October 8th, and was received with the warmest expressions of attachment. This public entry took place on the 10th, which was conducted with great ceremony and parade.—There was a splendid procession, firing of cannon, ringing of bells, illuminations, and all the customary expressions of rejoicing.

Spain continued in an unsettled state. Several cities had suffered from the yellow fever. In Barcelona and Barcelonetta, 389 persons died in four days, from the 22d to the 25th of Sept.—three-fourths of them of yellow fever. A few cases of yellow fever had also appeared in Marseilles.

An Institution for the education of the Deaf and Dumb, has been established at Cincinnati, in the State of Ohio, with Trustees, and under the direction of Mr. Chute, a gentleman who has spent a considerable time in qualifying himself for the benevolent task.

Literary Fund of Virginia.—We find in the Richmond Enquirer, a detailed account of this fund, which presents an instance of public munificence, that has few parallels in our country.

The permanent capital is $1,094,053 25, to which are to be added debts due $59,090 52. Of this sum, $1,023 21 remains unappropriated in the Treasury.

The net revenue proceeding from various sources amounts to $252,735 20, of which $75,650 05 remains unexpended in the treasury, leaving together, with the balance of capital unappropriated, an unexpended amount of $106,673 26.

The principal item in the permanent fund is the whole United States debt to Virginia for war services, $1,006,851 68, which the legislature of Virginia, with a liberality that does them honour, have appropriated to the literary fund; thus reaping a double benefit from their patriotism: first receiving for it a valuable pecuniary compensation, and next appropriating that compensation to the intellectual improvement of the present and future generations.

Boston Patriot.

By a law of Virginia, which is to take effect on the first day of next month, any resident of that state who shall attempt to pass bank notes of less denomination than five dollars, forfeits ten dollars for every such offence.

Reward of a good action.—We have seen nine beautiful silver cans manufactured by the order of the public spirited merchants of our city, for the purpose of being presented to the 9 sailors, being the crew of the John & Adam, who lately boarded the wreck of the ship Sea-Fox, which they fell in with at sea, and cut out from her hold, four human beings alive. The following is the inscription on the cans "Presented to —, by the citizens of New-York, for his exertions in saving four seamen from the wreck of the ship Sea-Fox, October thirty, 1821." Thus a noble act is perpetuated by this donation, and the sailor's silver can will be considered a valuable keep-sake to their posterity. The pieces of plate intended for capt. Knight, and his mates, are not yet finished.

The following are the names of the seamen to whom the cans are presented:

Joshua Knight, son of the captain of the ship.
James Brown, carpenter, of Richmond.
William Roberts, of Philadelphia.
Thomas Slater, of London.
Thomas Thompson, of Portland.
John Rackliff, of Baltimore.
Samuel Adams, Bath.
Daniel Ver Porter, Dutchman.
Annibal Simmons, Cook.—N. Y. Ev. Post.

New-York, Nov. 17.

Yesterday came on for trial in the Court of Sessions, the cause of the State, vs. Milligan and Welshman, charged with defrauding the Phoenix Bank of a large sum of money. After swearing a great number of witnesses and hearing council on both sides, it was committed to the jury at half past ten last evening, who, after being absent about twenty minutes, returned with a verdict of guilty. We understand the defence was not placed on the merits, but was made principally to turn upon the question, whether the fact charged in the indictment was precisely laid, inasmuch as it stated that the defendant, Milligan, being an officer of the bank, committed the robbery, against the statute in such case made and provided, (Welshman was indicted for aiding and abetting,) Whereas the facts in evidence were, that the defendant was not an officer of the bank, but only acted as a temporary substitute for a clerk, at the clerk's request. This distinction was not deemed quite sound by the court, nor sufficiently comprehensible by the jury, and so, after two days spent in marches and countermarches of witnesses and council, they lost no time in returning a verdict of guilty. At length, then, we have an instance to prove that the laws can reach a case of bank robbery.—Evening Post.

The tenth Wave explained.—A hundred times, have I stood at the beautiful beach of Rhode Island, to watch the Tenth Wave, which is always larger than the preceding nine. Let any one try it at Nahant beach and he will find, that in an hundred of billows that come tumbling in, and breaking in foam at his feet, there will be ten in a hundred, larger than the rest. This is Maturin's meaning of the "tenth wave" of human suffering.—Boston Pap.

The famous vessel called Cleopatra's Barge, formerly the pleasure yacht of the late Mr. Crowninshield, has been sold to the King of the Sandwich Islands.

Dispatch.—The ship Triton sailed from Boston on the 9th September last and arrived at Liverpool in 18 days—remained there 23 days and then returned to Boston in 30 days, making the whole time she was absent only 75 days.

EDUCATION.

The Government of Columbia has appropriated the estates formerly applied to royal patronage, to the establishment of a general and uniform system of education throughout the republic.

Charleston, Nov. 22.

Transportation of the Mail.—We understand that prompt and efficient measures have been taken by the Post Master General, relative to the conveyance of the U. S. mail between this city and Fayetteville, N. C. One of the contractors, or rather an agent for one of the contractors on the route, has been already discharged, and other steps have been taken, to ensure in future, its safe and speedy transportation.
